

PHYSICIAN: Dr. Van Horne Served in England Blitz

BY FRANCES FRYER

SAN CARLOS—Dr. and Mrs. Homer Van Horne have been holding open house this past week for the many friends who have come to greet Dr. Van Horne since his return to San Carlos last week from England after two years spent there as a chest specialist at Horton Hospital south of London.

In Sept. 1941, Dr. Van Horne left the California Sanatorium in Belmont, which he had been in charge of for a number of years, to go as dean for a group of young medical men being sent by Red Cross to England to join the emergency medical service. Dr. Van Horne was the 26th American physician to arrive in England through Red Cross. At the height of the blitz, said Dr. Van Horne a thousand medical men had been asked for but with the lessening of the bombing the demand decreased.

After a short time spent at Westminster Hospital in London Dr. Van Horne was invited by Dr. Price-Thomas of Horton Hospital to serve there as a chest specialist. Horton Hospital has 3000 beds and was a base hospital during World War I. Part of his work says Dr. Van Horne involved a traveling chest unit equipped with American ambulances which took care of men with chest injuries brought in at Dover. Often this emergency call would come several times in one month and there would be a rush to the south of England to operate and care for these cases.

Dr. Van Horne thinks the English are a wonderful people and he left England with many regrets. He was billeted, he said, in an English manor home and came to learn and become very fond of the ways of the British. Speaking of the food, it was plain he said, no eggs or butter or delicacies—you learned to eat things dry, but there was plenty for everyone, everyone was in good spirits, and the state of national health was never better. Dr. Van Horne's great interest in England was evidenced at the start of the European war, when he was a member of the committee to defend America by aiding the Allies.

Dr. Van Horne, who before coming to Belmont was on the staff of the Walter Reed Hospital at Washington, D.C., and in 1925 opened the Veterans' Hospital at Livermore, says he is going to rest for a month after his strenuous trip across the continent—which he seems to have experienced of his two years—before he thinks about his plans for the future.

Tenant Sues For $31,000

Removal of furniture from the home of Harry Au Court, 1025 Menlo Park Rd., Menlo Park, on July 13, and an alleged beating up of Au Court was the basis today of a suit for damages totaling $31,766 in superior court at Redwood City.

In the suit, Au Court, a machinist, states that he was a tenant at the Menlo Park address and had a lease on the home and furniture to November. He claimed that William Greenbach of Redwood City, the owner, and "John Doe" went to his home on July 13 after he had gone to bed and demanded admission to remove household furniture.

Au Court asks $16,766 from William Greenbach and Joseph Greenbach of Redwood City, and $15,000 from "John Doe," who allegedly removed furniture from the house. The sheriff's office reported that W. J. Nugent of Oakland made off with a stove and refrigerator. William Greenbach was arrested and charged with battery and was released on $100 bail.

New Polio Case Found in S.M.

San Mateo County's total number of infantile paralysis cases since June 1 today reached seven, Dr. Charles C. Gans, county health director, revealed with the announcement that a 28-year-old San Mateo man is now confined to a San Mateo hospital with the disease.

This is the first county case involving an adult, Dr. Gans declared. Meantime, the U. S. Public Health Service in Washington reported today to the Associated Press that the incidence of infantile paralysis had reached epidemic proportions in several southwestern states. Figures for the entire nation during the first 6½ months of the year were the highest in 12 years. Up to July 17, California had 90 cases.

SAN MATEO—The motor from an army P-39 plane which crashed July 15 near the San Mateo disposal plant at San Mateo was still buried 18 feet under the ground today as army workmen abandoned their attempts to retrieve.

Hunt Firebug In New Blaze In Foothills

"I think someone set that fire," County Fire Warden Bert Werder said yesterday concerning Tuesday evening's fire on San Francisco watershed property which burned over 25 acres of grass and brush and constituted the largest fire of the season in this vicinity.

"Those things just don't start from nothing," Werder said, and told that this was the third fire in the last four years that has occurred in the same place and has burned over the same area. The fire started in a gully on the south side of Whipple Rd. and spread over 25 acres west of the Canyon Sanatorium. The county department which sent four trucks and ten men to battle the rapidly spreading flames received the call at 5 o'clock and the last truck reported back to the firehouse at 8:55 at night, the warden said. The San Francisco water department also sent a truck and several men.

From the way the bank is constructed along the road where yesterday's blaze started, the fire warden explained, a cigarette dropped from a car would not start a fire. "It must have been set," he said.

The owner of property in those hills recently removed cattle from the district because three of his animals had been shot, the fire warden told. Werder believes that someone has been killing deer at night with spot lights there and thinks "outlaws" in the area may have set yesterday evening's fire.

Tuesday Chief John Volpiano of Woodside announced that on five different occasions during the last few weeks he had located packets of matches tied to partially burned cigarettes giving plain evidence of deliberate setting of fires.

Soldier Hurt In 3-Car Wreck

SAN CARLOS — Pvt. Agent Moore was in Letterman General Hospital today suffering from concussion and a possible leg fracture as a result of a three-way automobile accident at the Holly St. intersection with El Camino Real Sunday.

Private Moore's car, called a total wreck at Sharkey's Service Station where it was towed after the accident, was traveling south on El Camino when it struck the rear end of a car crossing the highway, glanced off into the north-bound traffic lane, and crashed head-on into an Oldsmobile driven by Clovis Gres, 35 11th St., San Francisco.

Gres was unhurt. Two other occupants of the soldier's car were only slightly hurt. Pvt. James Williams incurred injuries to one hand and Mrs. Waldeen Williams was bruised on the face. Both soldiers are stationed in Santa Cruz.

The first car struck as it was crossing the highway into Holly St. was driven by Glen A. Ward, 744 Cedar St. Ward's car was only slightly damaged.

Fire Watcher, 75, Jailed in San Carlos

SAN CARLOS — Three small grass fires in the same neighborhood between 11:15 a.m. and 2:30 Monday were extinguished by the San Carlos Fire Department. When the department responded a third time to a fire in the same vicinity, Chief Edward J. Wheeler picked up John Becker, 75, who had been loitering near each fire, and booked him on charges of intoxication.

Not a depth charge, but a "provisional bomb" dropped from Coast Guard scout plane to shipwreck survivors in lifeboat makes that splash at right. Developed by the U. S. Coast Guard, the hardy, watertight, lightweight bomb of wood and doped fabric floats tail-up like a buoy, contains food and water and has already saved lives of many seamen.

Werder Hits Politics In Defense

"Civilian Defense heads are trying to run jobs they don't know anything about," says Bert Werder, county fire warden in commenting on the argument during a recent Redwood City council meeting when Mayor Granger said that City Manager Mead had no right to ask deferment for a city employee.

Werder said that at a meeting of Peninsula fire chiefs in Redwood City Tuesday, many chiefs complained of defense heads without knowledge of firefighting were interfering with work of the firemen. "San Jose has this problem," he said. "Palo Alto, also, and it is definitely a problem in Redwood City."

"There are too many people playing politics," he said. "City officials have no business monkeying in Ryan's affairs." Werder said that Ryan stands a chance of losing two good firemen to the draft and he added "I'd hate like hell to have Ryan's responsibility after they're gone." He pointed out that Deputy Chief Joseph Lodi, one of the men who might be called, has been 13 years in the service and cannot be replaced on short notice.

Commenting on the high school boys who help out in his own service since 19 men have left for the army, Werder said they are good workers and efficient but they need experienced men to direct them.

"Firemen are just as essential to the war effort as a soldier on the front," Werder said. San Mateo, Burlingame and Hillsborough have lost no men to the service, he added.

County Employees Fail To Muster Quorum

For the second time in the past month, the San Mateo County Employees Assn. has been unable to adopt by-laws for the organization because of lack of a quorum at its meetings. At a meeting Monday at which the by-laws were to have been adopted, only 22 county employees were present, Helen MacGregor, secretary, announced today. Thirty were required for a quorum.

Last month the adoption of the by-laws was postponed for the same reason. The next meeting is set for Aug. 30.

OCD Seeks Recruits

A recruiting drive is on today for new fire guards and additional messengers to serve on the control center staff of the Office of Civilian Defense, Louis Dematteis, civilian defense public relations committee chairman, reported this morning.

The drive is a result of a meeting held Friday night in the council chambers when Norman Meyer was elected chairman of the new recruiting committee. The new committee and the public relations committee, discussing needs of civilian defense, agreed that new personnel was the most pressing problem. Tentative plans were made for a Civilian Defense Week in the latter part of September to direct public attention to defense work.

Appointed to serve on the recruiting committee with Meyer were Jake A. Buhler, F. S. Fabri, Joseph Lodi, Alphonsus Liguri, Mrs. Arion F. Kalenborn, Al W. Russel, Mrs. H. W. Dugdale and August Lueger.

McCarthy Heads Port Board

Redwood City Port Commission is preparing specifications for a new section of road south of the port property fence, Andrew A. Moran said this week. The new road will give trucks access to the Permanent Cement Plant without having to cross port property, thus allowing the port to be locked up when not in use.

Construction of the road was decided upon at a recent meeting of the port commission during which officers for the coming year were also elected.

New officers are John McCarthy, president; Ralph Morser, vice president, and Elmer Hur-

HOSPITAL: Assembly Line Technique Speeds Work

MENLO PARK—Assembly line technique is credited with the amazing rapidity with which the 78-building army hospital is going up on the Timothy Hopkins estate in Menlo Park.

Capt. Grant L. Miner, the officer in charge of the project, said today that the contractor, the G. W. Williams Co. of Burlingame, is applying a streamlined method of construction in order to complete the hospital by Oct. 1, when the army medical corps is due to take over.

Captain Miner added that to date, the hospital is "about 5 per cent ahead of schedule."

Explaining the construction technique, which is directed by Tony Skubi, superintendent at the hospital site for the Williams company, Captain Miner said that the workmen are divided into crews, each skilled in a certain type of construction.

"Thus one crew will excavate for a building, another one will lay the foundation and other crews will come in for different stages of the building that follow. When the crews finish at one building they move on to the next."

Prefabrication is another answer as to how the hospital is taking shape so quickly.

"All of the lumber for each building is cut at one time at the sawing yard," said Captain Miner, "and moved to the site on lumber trucks."

The foresight of the army engineers, not only planning the buildings with many uniform measurements so as to make prefabrication easier, but also in purchasing the majority of the needed materials months in advance of the actual building is credited by Captain Miner for the speed of construction.

"We had enough lumber on hand to stock two or three lumber yards," he said.

Although it represents the latest in modern construction technique, the hospital, when completed, will be far from luxurious.

"We have been directed to construct only with the bare essentials," said Captain Miner, explaining that this means, among other things, no post quarters and that the commanding officer will be quartered with the other officers.

As the officers' quarters and administration building are being topped with green asphalt shingle roofs and stand ready for their finishing coat of stucco, Captain Miner said that every day means a stepping up of the building tempo. Employees numbered 720 on Saturday; 60 more were added Monday and new workmen are being put on the job each day.

J. C. Penney Bond Drive Honors City War Heroes

This week, the windows of the J. C. Penney Company department store, in the Sequoia Bldg., show nearly 100 pictures of local men and women serving with the armed forces. Penney's entire staff is dedicated to the sale of war bonds and stamps in their honor. "Bonds Save Lives" is the selling theme, here, and in over 1600 other communities where Penney stores are located.

Since the first of July, all Penney stores have been conducting an intensive drive aimed at selling $10,000,000 worth of war bonds and stamps during the month. Last July, Penney stores, with a goal of $1,200,000, sold $8,422,553.85.

The picture of service men on display at Penney's here have been borrowed for the occasion from local people—relatives and friends.

Each week during July, Penney stores have emphasized in their window displays and in their advertising that war bonds and stamps can buy the fighting equipment that will win final victory. This week, the emphasis is on lifesaving needs—ambulances, rafts and parachutes.

46 Sequoia Girls To Aid Farmers

Forty-six girls from Sequoia High School left this week at 9 o'clock on the school bus with Miss Doris Dean, dean of girls, and Donald L. Bogle, dean of boys, for student harvest camp at Modesto. Three additional boys who were unable to go up Friday with the 45 boys who left that day made the trip today with the girls.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Wire Scarce

Barbed wire is growing more and more scarce on the farms and is becoming more and more plentiful out of the Pacific and in the environs of Hitler's fortress.

The kind the Army and the Marine Corps uses is costing us about four cents per yard, which can be paid for with your War Bond savings.

Barbed wire and War Bonds by themselves will not win a war, but every army needs mile upon mile of it and our country needs the support of millions upon millions of bond buyers in these critical times.

128 Awarded Citizenship

With the closing of naturalization hearings in Judge A. R. Cotton's court at Redwood City Wednesday it was revealed that a total of 128 persons had been issued final citizenship papers.

Among them were Mrs. Sarah Ann Tuxford, 2736 Devonshire Ave., who has three sons in the army; Mrs. Nora Guida, 980 Page St., who has four sons in military service, including one who is a prisoner of war, presumably in Italy, and her sister, Mrs. Josephine Guida, 641 Cedar St., who has a daughter in the WAVES and a son in the navy.

The Guida sisters, who married brothers who already have been naturalized appeared before William F. Partlow, U. S. naturalization examiner. Mrs. Nora Guida, wife of Nunzietta Guida, was awarded her citizenship papers, but Mrs. Josephine Guida, wife of Vincent Guida, Redwood City real estate dealer, was turned down.

The court learned that Mrs. Guida had come directly from the San Mateo County Red Cross Blood Bank where she had given blood. Upon this disclosure, the court called Mrs. Guida back for an examination yesterday, and she was awarded her papers.

Mrs. Nora Guida, who was born in Italy and came to the United States in 1914, as did her sister, is the mother of Anthony, 25, army; Frank, 23, taken prisoner in the African campaign and presumably held in Italy; Rocco, 21, a marine, veteran of action in the Solomons and Guadalcanal and now bedridden with malaria, and Edward, 19, army air force cadet. COUNTY TAXES: Tax Assn. Predicts Lower Rate Here

House Shortage Crisis Feared

The housing shortage in Redwood City will become even more acute in the near future, E. W. (Ned) Butler, chamber of commerce secretary, predicted this morning.

Butler said that completion of the new army hospital on Middlefield Rd. will bring additional families into the community. The PHA, he said, allocated 100 houses to this area, but can give no assurances of when priorities for building will be granted.

FHA authorities also informed Butler that no priorities will be granted for tourist camps or hotels because they are considered commercial ventures.

Coastside Farmers Seek Marketing Aid

By OTTO TALLENT

Coastside farmers were reported to be up in arms today over the fact that they face thousands of dollars worth of loss in crops because they lack a market for their products and they are seemingly powerless to do anything about it.

One farmer and his wife, however, came up today with what they believe may be the answer to relieving the situation. The couple, whose principal crops are cabbage and peas, advocate bringing the crops to private San Francisco and Peninsula markets and sell them by the crate—not by the pound—for family dehydration.

Daly City Refuses Special Census Plan

SAN CARLOS—Robert A. Klassen, city engineer for San Carlos, Belmont and Daly City and engineer for South San Francisco, said today that Daly City councilmen had decided in their Monday night meeting against taking a special wartime census in that community. They felt the increase in Daly City was insufficient to benefit by a redetermination of the population, Klassen reported.

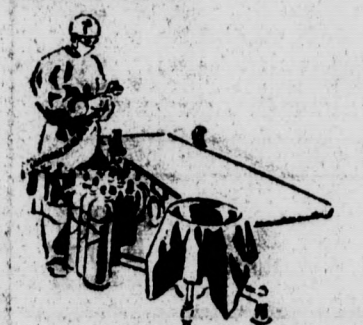

Representatives of the other three cities, however, will meet next week to discuss carrying out the project together. "I hope that they will go ahead with it," Klassen said, "and take the formal step of applying." A federal supervisor will be in charge of the census in case the three communities decide to proceed with a new population determination.

Andreozzi Replaces Krebs in S.C. Post

SAN CARLOS—Robert (Bob) Andreozzi has been appointed to take the place of Theodore (Ted) Krebs as assistant to Director Ralph Shaw at the recreation center, as Krebs will go into the army Aug. 7, Shaw announced today.

Work has increased for the rest of the staff since the departure of Mrs. Nona Harden, recreation leader, who has left San Carlos to join her husband, Lt. Hal Harden, in Wenatchee, Wash. Lieutenant Harden is a physical education instructor at the naval preflight school at Wenatchee.

Mrs. Vernon Fudge and Mrs. Brice Wheeler are the two women directors in the summer recreational program.

Charles Claggett, English musician who died in 1820, invented an organ without pipes.

Make summertime meals hearty!

One thing is certain: We can't "keep going" at our best speed unless we keep our summertime meals hearty and really nutritious. Easiest way to do this is to include at least one hot dish with all three meals of the day. And they don't have to be the kind that require hours and hours in preparation. Here are some suggestions for "quickie" hot dishes that will satisfy robust appetites.

TOAD-IN-A-HOLE—Form leftover, mashed potatoes into balls about 2 inches in diameter and press hole in the center. Partially fill hole with cooked, chopped meat, and add leftover gravy to fill hole to top. Place under broiler, and broil until potatoes are golden brown and gravy starts bubbling. Serve piping hot. Leftovers in grand disguise.

LIVER AND TOMATOES—Simmer 3 cups chopped, fresh tomatoes, ½ tsp. salt, ½ tsp. pepper, and 1 large chopped onion for about 5 minutes. Cut liver into 1-inch squares, and brown quickly. Add to sauce and simmer for a couple of minutes longer. Serve over noodles.

CABBAGE ROLLS—Prepare corn meal mush by adding ½ cup corn meal to 2 cups rapidly boiling, salted water. Cook about 20 minutes. Then add 2 cups chopped, cooked meat, carrots and peas, or any other kind of vegetables you have. Add a beaten egg if desired. Season with salt and pepper. Roll mixture up in individual cabbage leaves and tie or secure with toothpicks. Place in a flat pan, add just enough water to create a steam, and steam for about 15 minutes or until cabbage leaves are tender. Serve with a big salad. This offering is almost a complete meal in itself.

BARBECUED KABOBS—Cut beef, lamb or veal into 1-inch squares and string on skewers, alternating meat with sliced onion. Let kabobs stand in a mixture of vinegar, paprika, salt, pepper, and garlic for about an hour. Then broil or pan broil until sizzling on all sides. Heat vinegar mixture and serve over kabobs. Broiled corn on the cob can occupy the same oven and share the spotlight on the menu.

STUFFED STEAK—Have steak cut very thin. Spread steak with a thick layer of seasoned breadcrumb stuffing. Roll up steak, jelly-roll style and tie or skewer. Brown steak roll in hot shortening, then add just enough water to create a steam and cover and steam for about 25 minutes, or until steak is tender. Make gravy from drippings. It makes a little steak really go around.

MENLO PARK: City May Join County Health Plan

MENLO PARK—Menlo Park, only San Mateo County city to maintain a separate health department, Tuesday set Aug. 10 for hearing on the proposal to accept services of the San Mateo County Health and Welfare Dept. under Dr. C. C. Gans.

The date was fixed by the city council over protests of Joe Willis, editor of the Menlo Park Gazette, who argued that many interested persons will be on vacations at that time. He pointed out that the same proposal was turned down two years ago.

In a report on the county health service, Comr. Charles Burgess stated that "whether we like it or not, and whether we use it or not, the taxpayers of Menlo Park pay their proportionate share of the support of the county health department."

He went on to say that the city "cannot expect to duplicate for $600 the services that the county is capable of providing and for which our taxpayers are contributing $2850."

Under present arrangements the city is paying Dr. Robert Gerlough $600 a year for his services as medical adviser. According to Mr. Burgess he may or may not be retained if the city accepts the county health services.

Aug. 10 was also set as the date for consideration of the city budget. The proposed budget calls for an increase of 29 cents in the tax rate, raising it to 99 cents.

The subdivision of Felton Gables was rezoned. It was previously in Zone B and a new zone, AAA, was created for tracts of its type. In the new zone the only buildings which may be constructed on lots are:

single family dwellings, public schools, municipal buildings, the office of a professional person situated in the same dwelling house used as a place of residence and the usual accessories located on the same lot with the building permitted, but not involved in the conducting of a business.

The minimum area of a lot was set at 7000 square feet and it must be at least 60 feet wide on the front line.

The council voted a special assessment for weed abatement. It was also voted to send a letter to the district attorney stating that the council had reason to believe violation of the county trailer ordinance was being committed. There are trailers camped on the Roger Reynolds Nursery property opposite Menlo Junior College.

San Carlos Collects Icebags for Soldiers

SAN CARLOS—Mrs. Truman S. Waterman, canteen chairman for the San Carlos Hospitality House, made an appeal today for gifts of ice bags for the service boys suffering from malaria in Africa.

Each patient needs two ice bags and they are a great source of relief, Mrs. Waterman said. As there are some available on the market, cash donations will be welcome too.

"Three or four persons might go in together and buy an ice bag if they have none at home to give," Mrs. Waterman suggested. Contributions, which will be turned over immediately to the army, may be brought either to the Hospitality House on San Carlos Ave. or to Mrs. Waterman's home at 104 Aster Rd.

Nursery Purchases Sneath Lane Property

Deeds recorded today in County Recorder T. Clark Rice's office at Redwood City show that Mrs. Rosa Molini (formerly Rosa Delino) bought 32 acres of land on Sneath Lane, San Bruno, near Tanforan, and in turn sold it to Avansino, Mortensen & Co., nursery for $32,500. The deeds were recorded by San Mateo County Title Co.

California Pacific Title Insurance Co. sold a Hillsborough residence to Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Herbert for $21,500, stamps on a deed on record today indicate.

Fox; "One Man's West," D. S. Lavender; "White Man's Folly," by V. O. Oakes; "Land Where Time Stood Still," Max Miller; "Guam and its People," Laura Thompson; "I Saw Two Englands," H. C. V. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—Mrs. Ernest W. Holmes is a great success as the treasurer of six different civic organizations at the same time because she "never gets the money mixed." "But," she laughs, "my husband teases me because never can I make my own household accounts balance."

Roth, 57, former controller at Stanford, is in Washington.

Peninsula Commuters Delayed by Accident

Two Redwood City-San Francisco commuters' trains were a half hour late Tuesday Southern Pacific officials here reported.

The delay was caused by a wreck in Santa Clara in which Bert Gutunich, 27, was killed. Reports said his coupe was hit and carried 300 yards by an early commuters' train at a Santa Clara crossing.

Redwood City trains delayed were those ordinarily leaving here at 7:51 and 8:04 a.m.
